

A New All-Inclusive Virgin Islands Vacation at the Wyndham Sugar Bay Resort & Spa

ST. THOMAS, U.S. Virgin Islands (May 19, 2009) – The Wyndham Sugar Bay Resort & Spa announces a new All inclusive Virgin Islands vacation package. For incredible savings on a St Thomas USVI vacation, book the SunValue Island Getaway package for stays now through August 24, 2009.

Two adults staying four nights or more can enjoy their St. Thomas USVI vacation with unlimited food and beverages, entertainment, non-motorized water activities and half-day access to the supervised Kid's Club. Children under the age of 12 who share a room with their parents stay, play and eat (from the children's menu) at no additional charge.

In addition to its own secluded beach, the resort offers guests plenty to see and do during a St. Thomas USVI vacation. Guests booking the all inclusive Virgin Islands vacation package can enjoy over 31 acres of island activities for guests of all ages, including three lagoon-style interconnected pools, kayaking, sailing, snorkeling, wave runners, catamaran cruises and diving expeditions.

Families can plan a fun-filled St. Thomas USVI vacation with activities and entertainment onsite. The Kid's Club offers bumper boats, miniature golf, nightly family movies and daily supervised activities including iguana feedings. For adults, the Ocean Club Gaming Center features nearly 100 video slots and evening entertainment.

The resort's restaurants and lounges provide a variety of dining options. The Manor House, offers down-island views of the Caribbean from every table. Guests can breathe a sigh of relief during a St. Thomas USVI vacation with Wyndham ClearAir™ allergy-friendly guest rooms by PURE Solutions.

Travel stress-free during an all inclusive Virgin Islands vacation. Passports are not required for U.S. citizens who visit the U.S. Virgin Islands. Room-only rates and specialty packages are also available.
